Course Level	Bachelor Degree
Objective	Globalization created both challenges and opportunities for global cities and regions. Aim of this course is to examine impacts of these on processes and institutions such as urbanization, immigration, social and spatial segregation as well as urban governance
Content	This course takes the concepts and theoretical approaches as a starting point and will try to identify the strengths and weaknesses of them. The major challenges of those cities concerning urban governance as well as social, economic and spatial issues will be examined and the dimensions of the life in the global cities will be discussed. Particular attention will be on Istanbul as a big city with a capacity to become a global city.
