Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	Turkish
Course Type	Compulsory
Course Level	Bachelor Degree
Objective	To present fundamental knowledge about the international community and its legal organisation, and to establish a solid legal foundation that students can build upon in subsequent courses, such as Public International Law II, Human Rights Law, and European Union Law.
Content	This course is divided into two parts. The first part focuses on the sources of international law and its historical development. The second part introduces the concept of international legal personality, analysing the rights and obligations of States, international organisations, and natural persons under international law.
