Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	Turkish
Course Type	Compulsory
Course Level	Masters Degree
Objective	The course provides a methodological basis for both field research and study on texts. We will teach first of all, the two principal techniques of researches on social sciences: interview and sample questionnaire. We will also discuss the bibliographic research and identification of sources and finally we will study on content analyses and texts reviews.
Content	After an introductive presentation on the specificity of disciplinary fields related to research methods used, the first part presents the approach of social sciences researches. The second part focuses on the preparation and implementation of sample questionnaire; development and use of the questionnaire, selection of the surveyed population and data processing.
