

Content

Course Code	Course Name	Semester	Theory	Practice	Lab	Credit	ECTS
ÖHKHYL-320	International Commercial Disputes	1	4	0	0	4	10

Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	English
Course Type	Elective
Course Level	Masters Degree
Objective	The primary objective of this course is to provide students with comprehensive knowledge of various dispute resolution mechanisms relevant to international commercial disputes, as well as a thorough understanding of the legal notions commonly encountered within this field.
Content	Throughout the course, each week will focus on a distinct legal notion pertinent to international commercial disputes. Within this framework, we will analyze the corresponding dispute resolution methods.
References

Theory Topics

Week	Weekly Contents
1	The Hague Convention on Choice-of-Court Agreements
2	Mediation
3	Med-Arb
4	Breach of the Choice of Court Agreement
5	Law Applicable to the Arbitration Agreement
6	Extension of the Arbitration Agreements
7	Arbitration Agreements, Choice of Court Agreements and Choice of Law in Standard Terms
8	Asymmetrical Arbitration and Choice of Court Agreements
9	Provisional Measures in Arbitration
10	Antisuit Injunction
11	Multi-party Arbitration
12	Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards and Judgements
13	Class Action
14	Punitive Damages and Liquidated Damages