| Objective | The objective of the Migration Governance course is to provide a critical perspective on the problems brought up by migration, which is a global phenomenon. This course aims to question how migration is governed or not governed at the global and regional level by discussing national and international political issues related to migration. At the end of this course, the student will have a conceptual and theoretical background on migration governance, will be able to deal migration at local, regional, and global levels, and will be able to analyze migration governance implementations comparatively. |
| Content | The Migration Governance course seeks answers to the questions of why migration occurs and how it is governed, based on the basic concepts and theories in migration studies. Throughout the course, global, regional, and local implementations of migration governance are examined through case studies. Thus, the roles played by state and non-state actors in migration governance are discussed. Considering the interdisciplinary nature of migration studies, the approach of different disciplines to migration phenomenon and migration governance is highlighted through the course. |
