Course CodeCourse NameSemester Theory Practice Lab Credit ECTSG380Globalization830035

Prerequisites

Content

Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction French
Course Type Elective

Course Level Bachelor Degree

Objective -Study and understand the process of economic globalization from a historical perspective. Complete this knowledge with examples of strategies of globalized firms.

-1. The content and dimensions of the economy around the Middle Ages

2. The evolution of commercial activities, and the birth of markets: European world-economy

3. The advent of liberalism

4. 20th century: the formation of the economic space which will orient and lay the foundations of the structure of the international economy: the capitalist mode of production/the balance of power/the multinational firms/the agreements and the regulations of states

5. The globalization of trade
6. The globalization of trade

6. The globalization of production7. The globalization of finance

8. Last step in globalization: technological advances

Shocks and problems related to globalization: demography, sociology
 The shocks and problems linked to globalization at the trade level
 Shocks and problems related to globalization at the production level
 Shocks and problems related to globalization at the level of finance

13. Presentations of student case studies14. Student Case Study Presentations

Jacques Adda (1998): La mondalisation de l'économie -tome 1: Genèse Jacques Adda(2001) : La mondalisation de l'économie -tome 2: Problèmes

J.L. Mucchielli (2008) La mondialisation, chocs et mesures

References

Dicken, P. (1998) Global Shift: The Internationalisation of Economic Activity, London: Paul Chapman

Hirst, P. And Thomson , P. (1996) Globalisation in Question: The International Economy and the Possibilities of

Governance, Cambridge: Pollity Press

Ohmae, K. (1990) The Borderless World, London: Collins

Dunning, J. (1993) Multinational Enterprises and the Global Economy, Wokingham: Addison Wesley

Theory Topics

Weekly Contents