Objective	The objective of the course is to demonstrate the important role played by supranational courts in exercising their functions at European and international level. Their diversity is often presented as a sign of progress in law. However, it increases also the risk of conflict of authority between competing jurisdictions and the development of conflicting jurisprudence. The rapid development of supranational justice has not only questions the consistency of the system, but in each jurisdiction posed difficult problems of organization and operation which will be studied.
