SP473	Urban Movements and Identities in Turkey	6	3	0	0	3	6

Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	Turkish
Course Type	Elective
Course Level	Bachelor Degree
Objective	The aim of the course is to familiarize students with identities and urban movements of Turkey through contemporary examples.
Content	The course begins by sociological theories about identities and contemporary urban movements with numerous concrete examples. We will emphasize particularly on the transformations of cities in Turkey during the last decades, related to parallel logics of integration and urban conflicts. We will also try to understand the urban tensions and the territorial segregation as social facts, but also as the media and popular representations.
