

Content

Course Code	Course Name	Semester	Theory	Practice	Lab	Credit	ECTS
IND 552	Topics in Contemporary Management 2		3	0	0	3	6

Prerequisites

Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction English

Course Type Elective

Course Level Masters Degree

Objective The aim of this course is educating students on the concepts of management functions and contemporary management.

- Organizations
- What is an organization
- Environmental and social issues for management
- Developing and maintaining viable organizations
- Creativity in organizations
- Multinational management
- Individual behavior
- Organizational behavior
- Organizational objectives
- The planning process
- Planning and time dimensions
- Production management
- The organizing process
- Concepts of organizing

Content

References

Theory Topics

Week	Weekly Contents
1	Organizations.
2	What is an organization.
3	Environmental and social issues for management.
4	Developing and maintaining viable organizations.
5	Creativity in organizations.
6	Multinational management.
7	Individual behavior.
8	Organizational behavior.
9	Organizational objectives.
10	The planning process.
11	Planning and time dimensions.
12	Production management.
13	The organizing process.
14	Concepts of organizing.