Course Type	Elective
Course Level	Bachelor Degree
Objective	To analyze the continuities and changes of / in European politics through a triple study that focuses on the foreign policies of three dominant actors and study the place of Europe (outside the EU) in international politics and this, in a conjuncture marked by the substitution of the multiple policy of Europe by the supremacy of singular policies.
Content	This course focuses on the foreign policies of three actors who dominate and determine European politics, namely United Kingdom, France and Germany. The foreign policies of these three states will be approached from a comparative perspective and in the context of their mutual relations.
