Content

Course Code	Course Name	Semester	Theory	Practice	Lab	Credit	ECTS
EHYL-410	Disputes arising out of international contracts and Resolution of international litigations	1	3	0	0	3	6

Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	Turkish
Course Type	Elective
Course Level	Masters Degree
Objective	The objective of this course is to offer students a comprehensive understanding of contract drafting involving international elements, the challenges that can emerge from such contracts, and various methods to resolving disputes that may arise.
Content	In the context of this course, we will explore the entire process of international contract preparation, from inception to termination, and delve into various methods for resolving disputes that may arise along the way.
References

Theory Topics

Week	Weekly Contents
1	The Concept of International Contract
2	Issues to be Considered in the Drafting of International Commercial Contracts
3	Legal Regime of International Commercial Contracts
4	Settlement of Disputes Arising from International Commercial Contracts in Courts
5	The Law Applicable to International Commercial Contracts
6	Jurisdiction Issues in Disputes Arising from International Commercial Contracts
7	Jurisdiction Clauses
8	Provisionary Measures and Other Procedural Issues
9	Settlement of Disputes Arising from International Commercial Contracts via Arbitration
10	General Principles of International Arbitration
11	Legal Regime of International Arbitration
12	Basic Principles of International Arbitration Law
13	Effects and Consequences of Foreign Court Judgements and Arbitral Awards in Turkey
14	Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards under the New York Convention and Arbitration in Turkey