

Content

Course Code	Course Name	Semester	Theory	Practice	Lab	Credit	ECTS
GÜV327	Maritime English II	3	3	0	0	3	4

Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	Turkish
Course Type	Compulsory
Course Level	Associate Degree
Objective	The course helps students expertise of managing merchant vessel as a Deck Officer and ultimately as the captain of the vessel. The emphasis is upon general definitions and specifications of the ship, and general navigational terms in English
Content	1.To teach terminology about structure and main parts of a ship, directions on board (holds, hatches, pipe system and tanks, bridge, accommodation, engine room) 2.To explain general maritime terms and to teach general maritime terminology (ship's motions, shore structures etc.) 3.To explain and teach terminology about the measurement of the ships (Tonnage)
References	R.L. TALLACK, Commercial Management for Ship Matters, Nautical Institute, London, 2000, English For Maritime Studies, T. N. BLAKEY, Prentice Hall, 2001, ISBN 0-13-281379-3

Theory Topics

Week	Weekly Contents
1	Introduction to concepts
2	Ship directions and decks, Ship dimensions
3	ship general structure (holds, hatches, pipe system and tanks, bridge, accommodation, engine room, general terms and definitions)
4	-Structural parts of the hull (bulkheads, external parts of the hull, names of decks) ; Shipboard directions and locations
5	Ship's deck gear; ship's motions - shore structures (dock, pier mole, quay etc.)
6	Ship Board measurements -Length, width, depth, freeboard, draft, trim,
7	Ship Board measurements -Loadlines/Plimsol numbers/Draft marks
8	Mid term
9	Ship Board measurements -Measurement of mass and measurement of volume - Loaded displacement, light displacement, deadweight tonnage (DWT), gross tonnage, net tonnage
10	Organization of the ship - Duties and job descriptions
11	Anchoring
12	Mooring Lines
13	Standart engine orders
14	General evaluation