PH258	Philosophical Methodology II	4	3	0	0	3	4

Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	French
Course Type	Compulsory
Course Level	Bachelor Degree
Objective	As a follow-up course of the "PH257 - Philosophical Methodology I", this course has a two-fold objective: on the one hand, it aims to further develop the reading and comprehension skills that students have acquired during the previous semester, and on the other hand to provide them with necessary tools which will help them better understand the texts of great philosophers like Descartes, Spinoza or Rousseau.
Content	The main part of this course focuses on reading and explaining (in French) some of the most important texts of history of philosophy written by Descartes, Spinoza and Rousseau. During the semester, participants will have to write several explanations and commentaries on these works.
