Content

Course Code	Course Name	Semester	Theory	Practice	Lab	Credit	ECTS
COM338	Applications in Marketing Communication	6	2	2	2	2	3

Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	Turkish
Course Type	Elective
Course Level	Bachelor Degree
Objective	Integrated Marketing Communication (IMC) and "integration" concept will be defined and explained; IMC mix elements will be explained; main IMC mix elements - Advertising, Marketing Public Relations, Sales Promotion, Personal Sales, Direct Marketing, Packaging, POP, Digital - Social Media - will be defined; each elements' place and importance in Marketing Communications will be defined and explained; important National and international IMC cases will be given and discussed.
Content	1.Week: Basic concepts of IMC
	2.Week: Description, importance and place of advertisement in communication.
	3. Week: Presentation of important national and international examples / cases for advertising.
	4.Week: Definition of Marketing Public Relations, importance and presentation of national and international important examples / cases.
	5.Week: Sales Definition of promotion, importance and presentation of national and international important examples / cases.
	6.Week: Definition, importance of personal sales and presentation of important national and international examples / cases.
	7.Week: Midterm exam
	8.Week: Definition and importance of Direct Marketing and presentation of important national and international examples / cases.
	9. Week: Place, definition, importance of packaging in marketing communication and presentation of important national and international examples / cases.
	10.Week: Definition of POP, importance and presentation of important national and international examples / cases.
	11.Week: Difference of digital media from conventional media and returns to marketing communication.
	12.Week: Definition of social media, importance and presentation of important national and international examples / cases.
	13.Week: Examples of social media campaigns.
	14.Week: General evaluation of all IMC mixed elements and the importance of integration efforts.
References	- Clow, K., Baack, D. (2014). Integrated Advertising, Promotion, and Marketing Communications, London:
	Pearson.
	- Pickton, D., Broderick, A. (2005). Integrated Marketing
	Communications, London: Prentice Hall.
	- Related internet sites

Theory Topics

Week
------