

Content

Course Code	Course Name	Semester	Theory	Practice	Lab	Credit	ECTS
HUK346	Banking Law	6	2	0	0	2	1

Prerequisites
Admission Requirements

Language of Instruction	Turkish
Course Type	Elective
Course Level	Bachelor Degree
Objective	The institutional frontiers and banking contracts of the Banking Law have a widespread application area. Corporate governance principles have given the bank entity a new face. The aim is to examine the effects of corporate governance principles on the structuring and activities of banks and to analyze the key contract types in banking practice.
Content	Fundamental principles of banking law; Foundation and winding-up of banking institutions; Corporate governance principles I; Corporate governance principles II; Management structure of the credit institutions; Audit committee; General Assembly and Amendments Regarding AOA; Internal Audit and Control Systems; Concept of Credit and Related Limitations; Contracts of Credit; Contract of Deposit; Acquisitions of Real Property and Affiliates of Banks; Financial Structure of Banks; Ordinary Measurements.
References	Ünal Tekinalp, Banka Hukuku'nun Esasları, İstanbul 2009; Seiza Reisoğlu Bankacılık Kanunu Şerhi, 2 Cilt, Ankara, 2007.

Theory Topics

Week	Weekly Contents
1	Fundamental principles of banking law
2	Foundation and winding-up of banking institutions
3	Corporate governance principles I
4	Corporate governance principles II
5	Management structure of the credit institutions
6	Audit committee
7	General Assembly and Amendments Regarding AOA
8	Internal Audit and Control Systems
9	Concept of Credit and Related Limitations
10	Contracts of Credit
11	Contract of Deposit
12	Acquisitions of Real Property and Affiliates of Banks
13	Financial Structure of Banks
14	Ordinary Measurements